Did you know?

Stone Hall was built in 1858 as a family residence. In 1923 the name Edwin Shipway appears. Mr Shipway sold Stone Hall to Birmingham Corporation on 6th September 1930 for £1750. By then the estate was 1 acre, 0 roods and 18 perches. During the war, underground air raid shelters were built behind the house, and they are still there, in the garden.

The building was opened in 1973 as an adult education centre and is still going strong
